

GOLDEN ERA

M. S. Taliaferro, Editor and Publisher.

PENASCO STOCK ASSOCIATION.

A regular meeting of the District Protective Stock Association, of precinct No. 9, Lincoln county, New Mexico, was held at Upper Penasco school house, Monday, Jan. 12, 1886, with A. W. Bryan, president, in the chair.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

On motion of Frank Garst, the order of business was changed, and applications for membership were in order.

The following gentlemen, all duly vouchered for, were presented for membership: Capt. J. T. Bennett, Sam Collins, Dr. J. F. Rogers, Wm. Ratliff, James A. Baird, J. E. Prather, J. F. Hinkle, W. R. Shoemaker, D. L. Stephens, E. W. Merritt, S. F. Brewer, and E. W. Brown.

On motion of Geo. P. Eaker, the officers were suspended and the general election by acclamation.

W. P. Boyd, from the committee appointed to inspect the amount of cattle controlled, and the number of cattle owned, by Rhodius, McNeil & Baker, reported that, after a high investigation, they could not find one mile of water controlled by the above parties, and that they between 1,000 and 1,100 head cattle on the range. Report accepted and the committee discharged.

Messrs. Garst and Gunter, of the committee to confer with counsel, etc., reported: "That they had been advised by some of the most prominent attorneys of the territory that a suit could be legally collected resident stockmen from trespassers on their ranges. Further, that nearly every intruder was a violator of the quarantine law. In regard to crossing the quarantine line without inspection papers, the law was very explicit, and all that was necessary to have the law enforced when a violation of the same was to file complaint, and a district attorney would attend to it. As many members were doubtless aware the offence punishable by $5,000 fine and imprisonment.

In motion of T. C. Tillotson, committee were instructed to make complaint as soon as practicable against all known quarantine offenders.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. Bryan; Vice President, T. C. Tillotson; Secretary, T. C. Tillotson; Mr. Hunter.

Mr. All Hunter, the elected to send copy to GOLDEN ERA

NON-ASSOCIATION BRANDS.

B. J. BACI.

Cattle branded IOI on either side. Horse brand B on left shoulder. P. O. Address, Lincoln, N. M.

F. M. GOODIN.

All cattle branded with X on shoulder, + on side, and X on hip, all on left side. Horse brand same on left hip. Range:

West side of White Mountains. P. O. address, Nogal, N. M.

S. J. SLANE.

Horses branded same as cut. P. O. Address: Nogal, N. M. Range: Tortolita Canon.

Wm. JONES.

Cow brand same as cut on left side.

P. O. Address, Seven Rivers, N. M. Range: China Wells. Same brand on left shoulder on horses and mules. Anyone driving the above brand off my range will be dealt with according to law.

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths, a miserable." "Mots, do you infamously interrupted the letter? "Mots! What do you expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not, truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley: "What next to exact regularity in six hours for prayer and piety, they allow nothing to interfere with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the letter? "Mots! What do you expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the letter? "Mots! What do you expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have nothing to say, say it; but if not,

truly not." Gen. D. S. Stanley:

"What next to exact regularity in

six hours for prayer and piety,

they allow nothing to interfere

with their hours of study."

user to clother: "The matter of the thing is full of moths,

a miserable." "Mots, do you

infamously interrupted the

letter? "Mots! What do you

expect?"

"A dollar overcoat?"

Rev. E. E. Hale: "Tell truth. Keep the Commandments. Do not drink. If you have